1. The Soviet installations at Moedling marked on the attached sketch are as follows:
  - a. Komendatura, Hauptstrasse 38
  - b. Soviet-occupied building Moelkergasse 1a
  - c. former Sparkasse building, now a Soviet officers' club
  - d. troop billets, Roseggerweg 3
  - e. troop billets, Bergstrasse 5
  - f. house occupied by infantry troops, Wienerstrasse 6-8
  - g. troop billets; soldiers with black-red service colors were seen there.
2. A cable connects the building Wienerstrasse 6-8 with the Komendatura, from which a branch cable leads to Moelkergasse 1a, and the Soviet-occupied houses on Bergstrasse and Roseggerweg. Another cable leads from the officers' club in a northerly direction.
3. The Hotel Hajek at Moedling-Hinterbruehl is used as a military hospital. Several houses to the south of Hotel Hajek are requisitioned by the Soviets; the entire area is strictly guarded. A number of soldiers and women wearing hospital dresses were observed. Soldiers with bordeaux-red and officers with black-red service colors and also officers with red service colors and green cap braid were seen in this area.
